DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment filed December 16, 2003 amending claims 24, 28, 33, 41, 46, 49-51, 64, 70 and 75 is acknowledged. Claims 24-81 remain pending in the application and are presented to be examined upon their merits.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed December 16, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The applicant has amended the aforementioned independent claims with the following claim language:

"a step of processing the electronic information so as to enable use of the electronic information provided by the information provider in accordance with the permission signal"

The examiner respectfully asks the applicant re-read Fukatsu column 17, lines 12-51. It is submitted that any data that is being used in a series of steps (that includes transmitted or manipulated) is in fact being processed. It is also submitted that the data that is being used is electronic data because one of ordinary skill in the art would recognize that the data before being output to the receipt printer is in electronic form. Thus the processing of electronic information via host computer would have been obvious. Thus rejections made in the Office Action dated September 08, 2003 including the newly cited claim language are maintained.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
